TIGER TIME!
SPRING BREAK ACTIVITIES AT LAN SU CHINESE GARDEN
March 22 through April 2
People Born the Year of the Tiger Get in Free!

Year of the Tiger: 1926, 1938, 1950, 1962, 1974, 1986, 1998, 2010

One of Portland's treasures, Lan Su Chinese Garden is a window into Chinese culture and way of thinking. A staycation, with a visit to Lan Su, will have families feeling that they've traveled through time to a faraway world, while only taking a short car, bike, bus or MAX ride.

In addition to exploring the Chinese garden in full bloom, families can:

- Color and make a tiger mask
- Listen to Chinese stories at story time
- Print bookmarks with Chinese Zodiac symbols at bookmark stamping
- Drop in for weekly Tai Chi
- Listen to traditional Chinese music at the Teahouse (with tea purchase)

For schedule and times of activities go to www.lansugarden.org.

Visitors born in a Year of the Tiger who present birth date proof will get into the Garden free any day March 22 through April 2.

Admission: General-$8.50, Senior-$7.50, Student-$6.50, Under 5-Free, Family Pass-$25. Garden hours: Daily 10 to 5. Location: 239 NW Everett St, Portland 97209. Access: Walk from Downtown. Close to all MAX lines and bus mall. Plenty of on-street parking. Amenities: Authentic Teahouse (reservations not required) & Garden Shop
