

PO Box 3706
Portland, Oregon 97208
t. 503.228.8131
f. 503.228.7844

November 13, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Jane DeMarco

503.228.8131 x1006

jdemarco@portlandchinesegarden.org

Holiday Shopping Made Magical

WINTER GIFT MARKET- SATURDAY & SUNDAY DECEMBER 5 & 6 10am to 5pm
2 for 1 Garden Admission this Shopping Weekend with Downloadable Coupon

On December 5th & 6th the cool, elegant pavilions of the Portland Chinese Garden come alive with color and merchandise, in time for gift-giving and treating. The Garden Shop, long known for one-of-a-kind merchandise reflecting plants, gardens and Asia brings a series of special vendors offering unique jewelry, antiques, ceramics, glassware, flowers, textiles, art and cards for every taste and pocket book.

Shoppers can download a coupon giving 2 for 1 admission for Winter Gift Market days. Go to www.portlandchinesegarden.org for this special offer.

Market stalls include the following vendors and goods for purchase:

Marco Polo Designs	Glass jewelry reflecting old-world craftsmanship in an eclectic & modern style
Chayo Ceramics	Organic, hand-built ceramics inspired by nature
O'Pearl Jewelry	Pearl, jade, crystal and ceramic jewelry styled for women, men & children
Shogun Antiques	Chinese & Japanese furniture, ceramics & bronze ware
Rainyday Flowers	Penjing & Bonsai, plus holiday wreaths with an Asian flair
The Han Collection	Original artwork by Suzhou artists
An Asian Affair	Vintage silk robes & embroideries, rare objects & jewelry
Caldera Press & K's Everlasting	Individual & boxed note cards, plus dried flowers & wreaths Garden Hours: 10am to 5pm. Location: 239 NW Everett St. Access: Walk from downtown. Close to all MAX lines. Plenty of on-street, metered parking.

Admission: General $8.50, Senior $7.50, Student $6.50, Under 5 Free, Family Pass $25

More information On events & activities at www.portlandchinesegarden.org

www.portlandchinesegarden.org